

Hello, Spring

Hooray! Shout it from the rooftop bars of the city: after what seemed like the longest winter to hit the books, we have made it to springtime!

That's right LV community. Say goodbye to rain and snow and grey skies... it's the season to enjoy the beauty of the sun and the flowers a' blooming. This season brings a renewed sense of energy and vibrancy; a time to shed our layers and embrace the light, new growth, and the possibilities ahead.

At LDF, we're eager to share all the updates we have for you. From outdoor gatherings to volunteer opportunities and everything in between, we've got something for everyone.

So sit back, grab a cold lemonade, and let's dive into all the goodness of the season.

Au revoir

The 2022/2023 LDF grant season was full of so many notable proposals. We are eager and full of hope with our team's involvement at a higher level with these supported projects, including some new nonprofits that have recently been introduced to LDF: CORE Powered by the Rogers Foundation, The Ability Center, and Girls Empowerment Middle School (GEMS). We will also be continuing our partnerships with some of our legacy community partners: Foster Kinship and Collaboration Center Foundation.

Raise a Glass

We are giddy with delight for our Kat. LDF is thrilled to offer our warmest congratulations to Kat Klehm, the Executive Director of LDF. She was recently selected as an honoree as one of Las Vegas's 40 People Under 40.

Incredible!

This is an awesome recognition for Kat's commitment to our foundation. She works tirelessly in and out of the office, empowering people to foster positive change in our community. As a human she shows up as kind-hearted and full of passion, ready to help any soul that lights up her path.

We are so proud of you, Kat. Keep shining and keep spreading love and kindness wherever you go!

Small Changes, Big Impact:

Celebrating Earth Day

April 22nd

Earth Day is a moment to celebrate our beautiful planet and all the wonderful things she radiates. No matter your age, there are plenty of ways to support Mother Earth and honor your love for her. You can organize a neighborhood scavenger hunt to pick up litter and clean up the environment for the little tykes. For grownups, there are amazing activities such planting a tree, starting a compost bin, or even just switching to reusable shopping bags. Easy peasy! Other ideas include getting outside and enjoying the outdoors, organizing a community garden (yum), and walking around and appreciating all that this community offers. Each and every small step you take can make a big difference in helping to protect our planet for generations to come.

Happy Earth Day LV!

Green Our Planet's Farmers Market

In honor of Earth Day, Green Our Planet is having their Giant Student Farmers Market, the largest student-run farmers market in the U.S. How cool that the money the students earn is reinvested into their school garden programs?

April 21st in Downtown Summerlin. 9:30am-1pm

Together We Can: Celebrating Volunteer Week and the Power of Collaboration

Volunteer: (noun) Essentially, a superhero without a cape, who chooses to save the day simply because they're awesome like that!

Volunteer week is April 16th-22nd. This week is time to get out in our community, get your hands involved in volunteering with your favorite local nonprofits. It's also a time to recognize and appreciate the valuable contributions of volunteers around the world and their vibrant, positive impact in their respective communities.

LDF members will be volunteering at HELP of Southern NV on May 10th at 1:30 for a fitness class instructed by our E.D Kat Klehm, as well as at The Just One Project on April 18th. To participate with us send us a message on social media or email.
